INJUNCTION AGAINST DELMAR RACE TRACK.

Judge Zachritz Issues Temporary Writ Restraining Bookmaking at That Resort.

ORDER WILL BE IGNORED.

Defendants Will Apply for Writ of Prohibition, Pending Which Operations Will Be Continued as Usual.

An application will be made to-day to the Supreme Court for a writ of prohibition to prevent the enforcement of the order made by Jodge Zachritz yesterday temporarily restraining bookmaking and pool selling at the Indmar roce track.

Judge Zachritz made known his decision before going on the bench yesterday morning, the matter having been heard in chambers. Judge Zachritz made the announcement in his private consultation-room. The order will be in force until the case comes up for trial on its merits at the October term of court, if the matter be pushed to a conclusion.

The order restrains the defendants from making books, selling pools, registering bots and making wagers on the Delmar race track, in the city and county of St. Louis.
A copy of the order was sent to Sheriff Dickman, who went to Delmar track to serve, it, on the defendants. Attorney herve it on the defendants. Attorney Thomas J. Rowe, representing the Attorney General, accompanied the Sheriff.

On receiving a copy of the order, a consultation of the attorneys for the defendants was held at the office of Boyle, Priest & Lehmann, in the Luclede building. It was Lehmann, in the Laclede building. It was decided to apply for a writ of prohibition. Attorney George W. Easley, connected with Boyle, Priest & Lehmann, called at the Courthouse to notify Judge Zachritz, and the Attorney General was also notified. Mr. Crow telephoned Attorney Thomas H. Harvey, who had assisted in prosecuting the case. Mr. Harvey went to the Caurthouse and procured a certified copy of the restraining order and a copy of the demurer which had been filed by the defendants. He stated that he intended taking a night train for Jefferson City, to be present when the application for the writ of prohibition is applied for.

The order of Judge Zachritz created adverse comment among the officials and habitues of the Deimar track. Captain Tilles, one of the proprietors of the Deimar track. "Our attorneys have advised us that the order is void, and we will continue to race and will allow the bookmakers to sell pools on the races."

OGLE RAN LIKE A CRACK COLT. Mr. Finn's Fast Chestnut Galloped 5 Furlongs in 1:01 1-2.

Racing at Delmar Park was excellent ves the day and betting was not interrupted by the injunction issued by Judge Zachrtz. The first race exposed a really good colt, who has been covered by poor handling, in Ogle, a son of Emperor of Norfolk, owned by W. W. Finn. This fellow was an even-money shot, where he should have been 1 to be the way in the to ie. He was ridden by steble boys in his previous races, yet made fine showings every time. Howell was on him yesterday, and he ran a brilliant race, all by himself He stepped the first three-eighths in 33%. faster than any horse has yet run it at Delmar. Each forlong was run under 12. pretty going. The cold won by ten lengths in 120% a new track record by one-nail a second. He was straight all the way, but probably could have done a bit better. Ogle is a very well-knit, sturdy fellow, apparently of high quality and some class, even if Sam Hildreth did sell him. You know they say Hildreth never did dispose of one that was any good thereafter. The cost was entered to be sold for $300, was hid up to $1,000, and retained by Mr. Find.

Bart Howe ran a good race back of Ogle, as did Miss Galnes and Sting, who was under bloss. Sting will do later on.

performances have been good. John Morton

Morton had his race in front, where King

Dale gave La Spara, a big, gaunt mare, a fine ride in the third race, and under his jolly she won casily. Orris and Bean, two contenders, rain their races in front. Dale nursed La Spara well, came on in the stretch and won. Brown Vail ran a good race here, and was looming up like a winner when she was cut off at the stretch turn and put out of the race.

The fourth race looked good, but it turned out a poor one. Dundy Jim was a dearknows-why favorite, with South Breeze next in consideration. Hengist was held at twelves and Miss Golightly at threes, Dandy Jim and Hengist were off in front. Miss Golightly was away well, while South Breeze was almost left. Dale hustled Hengist all he knew how, and Powell did well by Dandy Jim. Neither could land. Hengist has speed, but was short, and Dandy Jim is no good as a sprinter-or, for that matter, nnything clee. They all died away in the stretch. O'Brien came along on the inside with the consistent Miss Golightly and won. She ran right to the mark. It was a bad tace for all but her.

Mennee's Past Gallop.

The fifth race at a mile was a mere canter for Menace, who galloped at her ease in 1:81%, within one-fourth of a second of the track record made on Monday by the 4-year-old, Van Hoerebeke, with three pounds less weight up than this 2-year-old fifty carried. Menace could have run in 1:40% had she been extended. Kitty Clyde ran a good second.

The last race was an awfully bad field of twelve bengles. Honeywood, at 12 to 1, won in a hard scramble. Joe Doughty was probably lest, but was almost left at the post. Two Annies also was roughly handed in the passage down the siretch. Spinnaker, a 200-to-1 shot, led to the stretch, where she broke down while going fast.

RACING SITUATION PERPLEXING. Outcome of Present State of Affairs

Outcome of Present State of Affairs

Not Yet In Sight.

Judge Joseph Murphy arrived from Chicago yesterday, bringing the glad news to Kinloch that a hundred horses stabled at the track had been reinstated by the Western Jockey Club and were eligible to race over tracks in the control of that body. No official announcement to this effect, however, was received from Chicago until late in the afternoon.

As a consequence, entries of these horses were refused until late in the afternoon, when the day's card was nearly completed. were refused until late in the afternoon, when the day's card was nearly completed. To-day's fields present an enlarged appearance on account of the new material, and many idle horses will be given a chance to

Reinstatement of so many horses and the Reinstatement of so many horses and the injunction issued yesterday against the Delmar plant by Judge Zachritz are regarded by racegoers as certain to have effect on the length of the kinioch meeting. Aithough not definitely announced, it was the general impression at Kinioch yesterday that the meeting there would be continued right up to November I, once Delmar was closed for the season.

With a clear field in the racing game, there would be no reason for kiniocan not making money and reimbursing the backers of the meeting for the outlay they have been gablected to thus far. Licenses would have to be secured from the Western Jockey Club for this meeting, but now that Kinioch is in a position to be useful, there is no doubt but that licenses would be instantly forthcoming, and that even membership in the W. J. C. could be secured if the management of the course desired it.

The prompt action of the Western Jockey Club yeakerday in the reinstatement mutter, after the question had been postponed Mooday, night, is significant of the triple.

if the W. J. C. waited until the injunction against Delmar was assured, and then hastended to reinstate the outlawed horses.

With the developments of yesterday some alarm was felt by borsemen stabled at Delmar over a rumor that horses and owners, who had not applied for rejustatement by the Western Jockey Club upon the opportunity given them by the Kinioch management, would be barred from the California tracks this season.

tunity given them by the Kinloch management, would be barred from the California tracks this season.

At the time when horsemen were first given the opportunity to apply for reinstancement through Judge Murphy, a rumor was started that those who refused to help the Kinloch meeting would be in the bad graces of the California tracks. So positive did this rumor become yesterday that President C. A. Tilles of the Fair Association wired to Tom H. Williams, owner of all the San Francisco tracks and now stopping in Chicage, asking information on the point. In reply he received the following telegram from Williams:

"C. A. Tilles, St. Louis, Mo.; You can state that all horses which are in good standing in this or any other country can race at our tracks.

(Signed)

"T. H. WILLIAMS, JR."

Talk of a new racing body, to be formed by tracks dissatisfied with the present state of affairs, is spreading of late, and it looks as if there might be some ground for the rumor. The matter was discussed guardedly among the horsemen at Kinloch yesterday, and while none would talk for publication it was admitted that the matter had been talked over as a possibility by the control of the contr affairs to form a new and powerful turbody. Newport was obliged to close down because the American Turf Congress refused Manager Fowler permission to put in a foreign book. Latonia was unable to make a short meeting pay and it is hardly likely that Kinioch is satisfied with its last two wesks' experience.

If a new turf body was formed, permitting smaller purses to be given than those required by both governing bodies at present, it might prove a boon to certain tracks. Foreign books are so detrimental to racing and excite so much opposition in a legislative way that it is hardly likely any governing body would recognize them; but if a new turf body would give Newport the privilege of putting in such an appendage and limited the privilege to the one track it is almost a certainty that the track would join such a body.

Three possibilities are present in the racing situation just now. One possibility which seems distant is the burying of the hatchet by the Western Jockey Club and the American Turf Congress and the amalgamation of both bodies into one association; a second possibility is the malner and the rulings of each mutually respected; the third is the formation of still another turf body.

WIN AT KINLOCH.

Every Race But the

Life Injected Into the Meeting by W. J. C.'s Reinstatement Edict -Parnassus Defeats Little Scout and Ravensbury.

Developments of yesterday in the local Chleago. Bl., Sept. 2-Secretary Kunt of racing situation caused an increased attendthe Western Jockey Club announced this ance at Kinloch, many racegoers journeying afternoon that those of the owners and out to the Florisaant Valley track on the trainers who have been racing on Turf Congress tracks and who wish reinstatement to the privileges and good graces of the W. J. Probably 2,000 persons attended in the afternoon, the crowd being but little short of that on Labor Day.

The first effect of the injunction was noticed at the Kinloch gates, admission being charged for the first time since the opening day of the meeting. Many had gone out on the train in the hellef that admission would be free, and having to separate themselves from 75 cents proved an unpleasant surprise. Within the track, beyond a slight atmosphere of pleased expectancy, nothing in the situation affected the usual order of events. situation affected the usual order of events. Judge Murrhy arrived from Chicago in time to take his place in the stand and spread the tidings that outlawed horses had been reinstated at the meeting of the Western Jockey Club that morning. A telegram to President Lucas from Chicago confirmed these tidings.

Late to the afternoon it was decided to

Late in the afternoon it was decided to accept entries of the reinstated horses, and additions are to be noticed in every field of to-day's eard. Entry lists were kept open long after the, usual hour, and no entries were completed until after the last race had been run and the crowd had departed. Officers of the track stated yesterday that the meeting is expected to take a decided spurt from now on, it being generally behaved that Deimar would be closed in a few days. Colonel Ed Butler was at the course yesterday and had a long consultation with President Lucas anent the racing situation.

Second choices practically swept the card of the afternoon's races, Lakeness being the only favorite to win. Robinson's roan filly proved a cinch in her race, the second on the card, and won easily, as predicted by The Republic. Fireside, the relic of the late ran a surprisingly good race in this event, and his owner stated before the race that he was in great form just now, the only danger being in his legs. Man of Honor went to the post with both shins swathed in bandages and ran a sensational race in the early stages, keeping up with case to Golden Sceptre, and seeming to be running well within himself. Coming down the stretch his underpinning seemed to get heated and he finished second after making a strong bid for first money. Golden Sceptre won easily.

El Caney proved unable to give Nettle Regent eight pounds and a heating yesterday, although it is probable he could do it in another attempt. Had it not been for a series of swerves in the stretch he would certainly have run her to a head at least and the ride put up by Matthews left something to be desired.

El Caney seemed to be too far back in the carly stages to begin with, and, after rounding the stretch turn strongly and coming fast in the stretch, he swerved twice when Matthews raised his whip for a drive. Matthews got him going again toward the finish, and he came strongly, but Nettle Regent managed to stall off his rush and won by half a length.

John S. Bratton, who leads the reincarnated turfmen, has a large entry at Delmar to-day.

The entire situation is ridiculous in the extreme. Turf government in the West certainly amounts to a whole lot. The most refreshing part of the whole thing is the way Barney Schreiber and Curly Brown have come up and taken their milk.

RACES AT SHEEPSHEAD.

Favorites, Heavily Played, Won the Two Lucrative Events.

New York, Sept. 2.—Two fixtures were decided at Sheepshead Bay to-day, the Partidge Stakes at six furlongs on the turf, and the Flying Handleap at six furlongs on the main track. Gay Bey won the first. He was a hot favorite in the betting, and, after induiging Sun Shower with the lead to the stretch, came away and won easily by two lengths. Flora Pomona took the place from Sun Shower by a scant head in a flerce drive. Dublin, an added starter and favorite for the Flying Handleap, won easily. Reina, at 5 to 1 for the place, closed with a rush and took the place assily by two lengths before Paul Clifford.

Old Judge Steadman will make his appearance in the fourth race, his first start since he was warned away from the Delmar track. He looks well in to-day's field, but Monos seems to be the best horse at that. The Judge will probably the second and Papa Harry third.
On his good race of Monday, when he led the way to the stable turn in a fast field and was then cut off sharply, Aloha looks to be best in the last race. The distance is six and a half furlongs, and Aloha ran as if he liked a short and sharp sprint for his racing. He will probably win to-day. Nettie Regent should be second and Miss Conrad third.

has been so far. While no animal of excep-tional merit is carded to start to-day, some pretty good horses will be in line before long, especially if the Delmar track is closed. Definite closing of the Delmar plant will encourage many owners to ship here from Chicago and other points who feared to come before, dreading an untimely end-ing of the Kinloch meeting.

ROUGH ON THE TALENT.

Everything Went Wrong With Form Followers at Harlem.

Chicago, Sept. 3. Big fields made up of bad horses and made worse by bad starts proved disastrous for the talent at Harlem this afternoon. It was a day of surprises and favorites were mowed down in one, two, three order. Not until the fourth race did a favorite score brackets. In this event St. Marcos, at 8 to 5, won handly. Weather clear; track fast.

Off to a good start, Prectorius went at once to the front and led throughout, turning into the stretch a length in front of Ducla, who made her run at this point and it tried to get up. The most she could do, however, was to pass Frank Jones for an instant, only to fall back again and come in very tired and dusty, a distant third.

Kinloch's proverbial dust made the finish of races somewhat unpleasant in the stand, of races somewhat unpleasant in the stand, and settling around the judges' stand and grand stand. The third race was a dash for "year-olds, and the scurrying youngsters" came down to the finish in a perfect halo of dust, Paranssus winning, as predicted by The Republic, from Little Scout and Ravensbury, who were unable to keep up with him at the weights.

Golden Sceptre, selected by The Republic to win, captured the last race on the card from Man of Honor, Joe Collins, the odds on favorite, being beaten off. Man of Honor and his owner stated before the race that he was in great form just now, the only danger being in his legs. Man of Honor went to the post with both shins swathed in handages and ran a sensational race in the early stages, keeping up with ease to Golden Sceptre, and seeming to be running well within himself. GRAND CIRCUIT MEETING.

GRAND CIRCUIT MEETING.

Events at Hartford All Went to the Pool Favorites. Hartford, Conn., Sept. 3.—The Grand Circuit meeting at Charter Oak Park was opened to-day with races in the 2:30 class for trotters and pacers, respectively, and in the 2:19 class for trotters. The purses in each were $3,000. There was an attendance of 2,500, and the day was ideal for racing. In the 2:30 trot there were five starters, Country Jay being a strong favorite over the field in the auction pools, at $100 to $130. Country Jay won in straight heats. In the 2:30 pace there were but three starters. New Elchmond was a favorite at 5 to 1 before the start. The first two heats went to Terrace Queen and the mare locked like a winner. In the third heat, however, she stopped, and New Elchmond went ahead and wen the race with ease in the next three heats.

There were seven starters in the 2:19 trot. Neva Simmons was a 2-to-1 favorite over the field. The first heat was very close between Neva Simmons and Helen Grace, and when the judges put out Neva Simmons's number as the winner there was considerable dissension. The next two heats and the race went to Neva Simmons, the mare winning handliy.
